2009 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Resolution and Resilience: ADR in the Global Recession

WELCOME

ANGELA O'BRIEN
President

Dear Delegate

The Institute of Arbitrators & Mediators Australia (IAMA) is the nation's largest, independent and most experienced alternative dispute resolution (ADR) organisation.

Each year, it hosts an international conference which attracts leading practitioners, industry participants and academics, bringing together key influencers and stakeholders from the public sector and private enterprise, to be informed of the emerging trends in resolving commercial disputes.

This year's conference in Melbourne is no exception.

The Resolution and Resilience: ADR in the Global Recession conference will focus on dispute resolution in the current economic downturn. Today's globalised environment provides great market opportunities, but in an ever-changing business landscape, challenges abound. For private enterprises and public institutions, priorities are shifting under increasing financial pressures. For organisations in dispute prone sectors, the efficient resolution of disputes is essential to maintain profitable business and build community confidence and harmony. This conference will focus on the ability of ADR to contribute to those outcomes, and how ADR professionals can best meet the needs of disputants in these challenging times.

The program takes the form of plenary sessions, interactive workshops and streamed presentations covering a wide range of topics.

On Friday, 29 May the Australian Attorney General, the Hon Robert McClelland MP, will deliver the Australian Government's keynote address, followed by signing ceremonies of agreements between the Institute and other international ADR organisations.

The conference will be attended by delegates from across Australia and around the world and will include speaker representation from China, Singapore, Malaysia and New Zealand.

There will be streamed sessions aimed at specialist groups as diverse as the legal profession; building and construction; the computer and telecommunications industries. There will also be sessions on workplace disputes; family law; dispute resolution boards in the infrastructure sector; international arbitration; maritime and investment arbitration; ADR and the Australian Football League; ADR in the financial and banking disputes; online mediation survey in SE Asia; a framework for addressing the issues of culture, power and social justice in the Asia Pacific region, as well as the recent developments and emerging trends in the ADR sector from government and industry.

Once again, the Institute's conference features an array of eminent speakers and presenters. We are honoured to have the the Hon Robert McClelland MP, Australian Attorney General; the Hon Rob Hulls MP, Deputy Premier of Victoria and State Attorney General; the Hon Michael Kirby AC CMG, retired Justice of the High Court of Australia; the Hon Justice Murray Kellam AO, Justice of the Court of Appeal, Supreme Court of Victoria and Chair of the National Alternative Dispute Resolution Advisory Council; the Hon Sir Laurence Street KCMG QC; former Australian Solicitor General, Gavan Griffith AO QC; Professor Doug Jones AM; Dato Noorashikin Banti Tan Sri Abdul Rahim, Director of Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre for Arbitration; Dato Kevin Woo, Immediate Past President of the Malaysian Institute of Arbitrators; Professor Dale Bagshaw, President of the Asia Pacific Mediation Forum and Vice President of the World Mediation Forum; Sandra Purser, Assistant Director, International Legal Services Advisory Council; Madam Wen Zhou, Case Manager, China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission; Michael Gill, CEO of Fairfax Business Media and publisher of The Australian Financial Review and Business Review Weekly; and Richard Ackland, award-winning broadcaster, journalist and publisher, Justinian.com.

The conference will be held at the Melbourne Sofitel, located at the Paris end of Collins Street, minutes away from the beautiful Collins Place retail complex, the Melbourne Cricket Ground, Southgate Arts and Leisure Precinct, Federation Square and Docklands. It is an hour away from the wineries and pristine beaches of the Mornington Peninsula, the Yarra Valley and the Great Ocean Road.

Recognising that the Australian Football League engages mediation and conciliation to resolve disputes, through the auspices of the Collingwood Football Club we have organised an exclusive opportunity for delegates to attend the Collingwood v Port Adelaide game at the MCG 4.40 pm 31 May at a special Premium Reserve Seat arrangement - Level 2, Olympic Stand.

I am pleased to acknowledge the work of conference producer Gianna Totaro and the IAMA Conference Committee who have organised an outstanding event.

I welcome you to the Resolution and Resilience: ADR in the Global Recession Conference and look forward to seeing you in Melbourne.

Best regards
